

SAINT JOSEPH'S
COLLEGE

Retreat for Permanent Deacons and their wives

July 15 - July 17, 2016

Anointed for a Mission: A Unique and Life-Changing Retreat for Permanent Deacons and Their Wives

Join us this summer on the beautiful campus of Saint Joseph's College in Standish, Maine for a weekend retreat that will uplift, inspire, and challenge your ministry and mission as a Permanent Deacon. Experience a transformation that will super-charge your work for the Kingdom of God on earth, as well as enrich your personal spiritual growth. Everyone will leave the campus with unique and valuable homiletic, teaching, counseling and ministry resources.

Topics Include:

- Reflecting on the Mission and the Promise
- Bringing the Kingdom Home
- The Five Pillars of Christian Spirituality
- Sacramental Character & the Proper Disposition

Retreat leader, Deacon Greg Ollick, MA, from the Archdiocese of Atlanta, has been offering catechetical workshops and leading retreats and parish missions since his ordination in 2007. His experience in the real world of parish ministry and his theological insights are what will make this retreat an unforgettable experience for deacons and their wives.
